Title: South Central Reporter/Producer
Reports to: News Director
FSLA Status: Full time-exempt
Version: 1.2

Summary Statement:

The Southcentral reporter/producer position will cover general assignment stories in the Anchorage/Mat Su region with a focus on education reporting. This position will primarily focus on reporting but the reporter will also act as assistant producer each weekday for Alaska News Nightly, including web posting duties after the evening newscast.

Alaska Public Media is the source of NPR radio, PBS television for South Central Alaska and stewards of the statewide news.

Essential Functions:

The South Central Reporter/Producer will:

- Report and produce news, spot and feature stories in the Southcentral region with a concentration on K-12 and UAA education reporting for Alaska Public Media and Alaskapublic.org.
- Work with the host of Alaska News Nightly in the afternoon lead-up to the statewide newscast to ensure the show is engaging and reflects the news of the day.
- Post the news stories and audio from the daily newscast on Alaskapublic.org and other social media.
- Capture audio, shoot photographs and video, and edit multimedia packages.
- Take part in various news, public affairs and election programs for radio, television and Web.
- Periodically serve as back up ANN host, morning news or anchor news or public affairs programs.
- Help implement social media initiatives – such as Facebook and Twitter.
- Collaborate with other Alaska Public Media staff on various news and public affairs projects.
- Meet deadlines, abide by AP style, and uphold professional journalistic standards.
- Work collegially in a team-based environment.

The Southcentral Reporter/Producer will report to the news director but work closely with other Alaska Public Media staff.
