Suicide Prevention Resource Toolkit

Mental health challenges come in many forms, from all walks of life. This guide is a reference to some resources that exist in Alaska and nationally to help you or someone you care about that might be facing a mental health need.

If you are in crisis, or experiencing thoughts of suicide, please text the Crisis Text Line (text HELLO to 741741) or call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-TALK (8255). Both services are free and available, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

IF YOU ARE EXPERIENCING A LIFE-THREATENING EMERGENCY, PLEASE CALL 911 or go immediately to your local emergency room.
There is help close to home. Below we highlight community organizations that specialize in the mental health needs of Alaskan residents. Although this guide isn’t a complete list of all resources in the area, it can serve as a reference if you’re looking for crisis providers and support organizations for youth, teens, and adults in Alaska.
